

Established in 2003, FCOM is a network of health clinics providing FREE healthcare in Michigan.

Our mission is to improve access to healthcare through advocacy, mentoring, and networking for and among Michigan member clinics.

FCOM clinics rely on

> 2,250

volunteers

including

1,775

medical volunteers

Annually, FCOM clinics:

- Provide 82,500 patient visits
- Serve 26,500 individual patients
- Intake 10,000 new patients

- 40% of clinics reported an increase in new patients

95% of clinics offer RX Assistance

87% of clinics offer Lab Services

78% of clinics offer Primary Care

70% of clinics offer Mental Health

52% of clinics offer Dental Care

60% of clinics have operating budgets below $150,000

Free clinics make big impacts with minimal funding

*Data is self-reported and representative of 26 participating clinics

Established in 2003, FCOM is a network of health clinics providing FREE healthcare in Michigan. Our mission is to improve access to healthcare through advocacy, mentoring, and networking for and among Michigan member clinics.

FCOM clinics rely on > 3,800
volunteers
 including 2,300
medical volunteers

Annually, FCOM clinics:

- Provide 70,000 patient visits
- Serve 25,600 individual patients
- Intake 6,800 new patients
- 50% of clinics reported an increase in new patients due to the COVID-19 pandemic

	78% of clinics offer Primary Care
	78% of clinics offer RX Assistance
	72% of clinics offer Lab Services
	53% of clinics offer Mental Health
	47% of clinics offer Dental Care

68% of clinics have operating budgets below $150,000

Free clinics make big impacts with minimal funding

*Data is self-reported and representative of 26 participating clinics