

Medicaid and CHIP Continuous Enrollment Unwinding:

A Communications Toolkit

This toolkit has important information to help inform people with Medicaid or CHIP about steps they need to take to renew their coverage.

DON'T RISK A GAP IN YOUR MEDICAID OR CHIP COVERAGE. GET READY TO RENEW NOW.

Overview

In March 2020, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) temporarily waived certain Medicaid and Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) requirements and conditions. The easing of these rules helped prevent people with Medicaid and CHIP—in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the five U.S. territories—from losing their health coverage during the pandemic. However, states will soon be required to restart Medicaid and CHIP eligibility reviews. According to some estimates, when states resume these reviews, up to 15 million people could lose their current Medicaid or CHIP coverage through a process called “unwinding.”

In an effort to minimize the number of people that lose Medicaid or CHIP coverage, CMS is working with states and other stakeholders to inform people about renewing their coverage and exploring other available health insurance options if they no longer qualify for Medicaid or CHIP.

CMS views Medicaid and CHIP continuous enrollment unwinding as 2 phases:

- Phase 1: Prepare for the renewal process and educate Medicaid and CHIP enrollees about the upcoming changes.
- Phase 2: Ensure Medicaid and CHIP beneficiaries take the necessary steps to renew coverage, and transition to other coverage if they're no longer eligible for Medicaid or CHIP.

Summary of Research

In November 2021, CMS explored Medicaid enrollment and renewal experiences and expectations among individuals enrolled in Medicaid and parents of children enrolled in CHIP. During conversations with people with Medicaid (with eligibility due to income and disability), parents of children enrolled in CHIP, and people who are dually enrolled in Medicare and Medicaid, we also examined reactions to messages designed to:

- Let people know how to get important information about their Medicaid
- Provide context about how Medicaid renewal rules have been impacted

Key Insights

Reaching People with Medicaid and CHIP

In general, enrollees in Medicaid and parents of children with CHIP pay attention to mail that comes from federal or state government senders, so direct mail may be an effective avenue for outreach. In cases where online enrollment was used, email and Medicaid portals were mentioned as expected means of contact in addition to (not in place of) mail. Several additional sources may be useful levers for outreach, including:

- Health care providers and clinics, and state or local health departments
  - » Including Indian health care providers operated by the Indian Health Service, Tribes and Tribal organizations, and urban Indian organizations
- Social services, such as HUD, WIC, SNAP, particularly for people who are eligible for Medicaid due to income
- Social Security Administration and disability benefits for individuals with disabilities
- Managed care health plan issuers, especially for people who are dually eligible for Medicare and Medicaid
- Community sources, like places of worship and schools, are also frequently mentioned touchpoints

While many people with Medicaid may not have gotten recent communications regarding coverage renewal or redetermination, some have received communications, and many have renewed coverage since March 2020 – this depends on the processes in place in each state. The need for renewal or redetermination may not be surprising to current enrollees, but they may need time to take action, as some find the activities associated with renewal to be time consuming.

Key Messages

State messaging should focus on encouraging people to get ready to renew their Medicaid or CHIP coverage, and shouldn't focus on why renewal is important right now. It should be simple, direct, and informative:

- 1. Update your contact information – Make sure [Name of State Medicaid or CHIP program] has your current mailing address, phone number, email, or other contact information. This way, they'll be able to contact you about your Medicaid or CHIP coverage.
- 2. Check your mail – [Name of State Medicaid or CHIP program] will mail you a letter about your Medicaid or CHIP coverage. This letter will also let you know if you need to complete a renewal form to see if you still qualify for Medicaid or CHIP.
- 3. Complete your renewal form (if you get one) – Fill out the form and return it to [Name of State Medicaid or CHIP program] right away to help avoid a gap in your Medicaid or CHIP coverage.

Other important messages:

- If you no longer qualify for Medicaid or CHIP, you may be able to get health coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace®. Marketplace plans are:
  - » Affordable. 4 out of 5 enrollees can find plans that cost less than $10 a month.
  - » Comprehensive. All plans cover things like prescription drugs, doctor visits, urgent care, hospital visits, and more.
- Losing Medicaid or CHIP coverage is a Qualifying Life Event (QLE), which allows you to enroll in a Marketplace plan outside of the Open Enrollment Period.
- Visit HealthCare.gov or call the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596 (TTY: 1-855-889-4325) to get details about Marketplace coverage.
- If your child no longer qualifies for Medicaid, you may be able to get them health coverage through your state's Children Health Insurance Program (CHIP).
- For more information about Medicaid renewal or CHIP coverage, contact your state Medicaid office or visit Medicaid.gov.

Note: Any messaging about Medicaid/CHIP renewal may prompt calls to State Medicaid offices for clarification and additional information. A few things to consider:

- Include specific dates and timeframes wherever possible. For example, "You need to renew your Medicaid coverage by March 31, 2022."
- Include specific, relevant information so that people don't need to fill in missing gaps or guess where they fit in:

A Communications Toolkit

- » In states where individuals have had opportunities to renew their coverage or re-apply, ensure that messaging takes this into account.
- Avoid vague language that could confuse people, like “you may be automatically renewed or “most people must complete a form, but some will not.”
- Reference state-based exchange (SBE) contact information as an alternative to the Health Insurance Marketplace® and HealthCare.gov, if your state has an SBE.
- People who lose Medicaid, but have Medicare coverage won’t need letters or other communications encouraging them to enroll in a Marketplace plan.

Important Changes Coming to [Name of State Medicaid or CHIP program] Eligibility

By the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services

Do you or a family member currently have health coverage through Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP)? If so, you may soon need to take steps to find out if you can continue your coverage. Soon, states will resume Medicaid and CHIP eligibility reviews. This means some people with Medicaid or CHIP could be disenrolled from those programs. However, they may be eligible to buy a health plan through the Health Insurance Marketplace®, and get help paying for it.

Here are some things you can do to prepare.

Make sure your address is up to date

Make sure your state has your current mailing address, phone number, email, or other contact information. This way, they'll be able to contact you about your Medicaid or CHIP coverage.

Check your mail

Your state will mail you a letter about your Medicaid or CHIP coverage. This letter will also let you know if you need to complete a renewal form to see if you still qualify for Medicaid or CHIP. If you get a renewal form, fill it out and return it to your state right away. This may help you avoid a gap in your coverage.

What if you don't qualify for Medicaid or CHIP?

If you or a family member no longer qualify for Medicaid or CHIP, you may be able to buy a health plan through the Health Insurance Marketplace®. Marketplace plans are:

- Affordable. 4 out of 5 enrollees can find plans that cost less than $10 a month.
- Comprehensive. Most plans cover things like prescription drugs, doctor visits, urgent care, hospital visits, and more.

Visit HealthCare.gov to find Marketplace plans and see if you might save on premiums. When you apply, don't forget to include current information about your household, income, and your state's recent decision about your Medicaid or CHIP coverage.

Get more information

- Contact your state Medicaid office or visit Medicaid.gov for more information about Medicaid or CHIP renewal.
- Call the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596 to get details about Marketplace coverage. TTY users can call 1-855-889-4325.

Social Media & Outreach Products

Unwinding Phase I – Social Media

As part of the Agency's efforts to ensure as many people as possible maintain a source of coverage, whether through Medicaid, CHIP, or the Marketplace, CMS is implementing a multi-pronged communications approach, in partnership with the states, to ensure consumers are aware of the steps they need to take to maintain coverage.

Use these social media posts below to encourage and remind your followers to make sure their state's Medicaid program has their current mailing address.

Tip Sheet for CMS Partners

3 Tips to help someone who lost Medicaid or CHIP coverage

Starting February 1, 2023, states can resume Medicaid and CHIP eligibility reviews that they temporarily stopped during the pandemic. When states resume these reviews, millions of people could lose their current Medicaid or CHIP coverage.

If someone loses their Medicaid or CHIP coverage, here are 3 things you can do to help:

- |  |  |  |
|--|--|--|
|  1. Encourage them to update their contact information so they don't miss important information or deadlines. They should contact their state or health plan to update their contact information (like address, phone number, and email address). Make sure they have the phone number and website for their state's Medicaid agency. |  2. Ask if they got a letter about their coverage status from their state or health plan. If not, have them contact their state or plan to find out if a letter is coming. If they did get a letter, tell them to check it carefully for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Information about their Medicaid or CHIP coverage status.</li><li>• A renewal form they might need to fill out and send back to renew their coverage. If they get a renewal form, it's important they send it back by the deadline in the letter to avoid gaps in their coverage.</li></ul> Note: If the person lost coverage because they didn't return their renewal form, they may still be within the 90-day reconsideration period to restore their coverage. Tell them to send back the renewal form or other information the state needs right away. |  3. Tell them about their other health coverage options if they no longer qualify for Medicaid or CHIP. People who lose Medicaid or CHIP coverage may be able to get health coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace®. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Most people qualify for savings on a health plan to lower their monthly premium and what they pay when they get care. Savings are based on their household income and size.</li><li>• All Marketplace plans cover things like prescription drugs, doctor visits, urgent care, hospital visits, and more.</li></ul> |

 If someone loses Medicaid or CHIP coverage, they have a limited time to apply and enroll in a Marketplace health plan. Tell them to:

- Visit HealthCare.gov/medicaid-chip/transfer-to-marketplace, or call the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596 (TTY: 1-855-889-4325) to get more details about Marketplace coverage.
- Visit LocalHelp.HealthCare.gov to get help from someone in their area. This service is free and can help the person better understand their health care options.
